

TRAINING INVITATION

ARUSHA - TANZANIA

HARNESSING NATURAL GAS POTENTIAL THROUGH PUBLIC- PRIVATE PARTNERSHIPS (PPPS): A CASE STUDY OF TANZANIA

● 15th to 18th October 2025

This training is designed to empower stakeholders across Government, and private sector with the knowledge and skills to structure, negotiate, and implement successful PPPs in the natural gas value chain

WHAT WILL YOU GAIN

- Understand Tanzania's natural gas potential and strategic priorities
- Explore PPP models applicable to upstream, midstream, and downstream gas projects
- Build capacity to structure, negotiate, and manage PPPs effectively
- Align PPPs with Nation Visions and energy access goals

Mr. Edwin Kidiffu

Facilitator

A lawyer with extensive experience in legal, energy and regulatory matters and expert in compliance and monitoring of PPP projects

Attendance Fee: TZS 2,500,000/=

Covering tuition fee, training materials, conference and refreshment for 4 days

REGISTER NOW !

Ms. Flora Joseph Tenga

Facilitator

Director of Legal Services at PPP Centre; legal practitioner and a certified PPP (CP3P) professional; an expert in PPP project structuring and procurement, legal drafting, contract negotiation and management